SOUNDS NEW DOCTRINE OF WORLD PEACE IN INAUGURAL

President, in Same Breath, Warns U. S. May Have to go Farther Than Armed Neutrality

NOT BY OUR PURPOSE, HE SAYS

Pleads for Limitation of World Armament and Equal Responsibility for Maintaining Peace

EQUALITY OF RIGHTS AS WELL

Urge Crushing of All Attempts Within a Nation to Organize Revolt Against Another

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, March 5.—President Wilson sounded a new doctrine in internationalism and world peace in his inaugural address today; but in the same breath warned that the United States "may require a more immediate association" with the war than mere armed neutrality.

His principal plea for world peace spoken before the thousands attending his second inauguration called forth:

Limitation of world armament. Equal interests and responsibility for maintaining peace.

Equality of nations in all matters of right or privilege.

Destruction of the "armed balance of power."

That all the world should support no other power than the view that "governments derive all their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Freedom of the seas equal to all. Crushing of all attempts within a nation to organize or assist a revolution against another nation.

The speech solemnly suggested that despite the war fires raging and despite the possibility that this nation must take a broader hand, still that peace is coming soon.

"The shadows that now lie dark upon our path will soon be dispelled," the president declared. "Armed neutrality is our stand. Yet this may not suffice.

"We may even be drawn by circumstances, not by our own purpose or desire, to a more active assertion of our rights as we see them and a more immediate association with the great struggle itself."

ASKS FOR LEGAL OPINION

Wilson Wants to Know in 24 Hours if he Can Arm Merchantmen

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 5.—President Wilson has asked the legal authorities of the government to give him an opinion within 24 hours as to whether or not he has the power to furnish armament for American merchantmen without special authority by congress.

Upon this condition depends whether the president will go against the senate's failure to act on the armed neutrality bill.

To fix responsibility before the country seventy-six senators, thirty republicans and forty-six democrats signed a manifesto Saturday night to tell the world that they favored the passage of the armed neutrality bill. This declaration, embodied in the record of the senate, referred to the fact that the house Thursday night had passed a similar bill by a vote of 403 to 13 and also pointed out that the senate rule permitting unlimited debate gave a small minority the chance to throttle the will of the big majority.

President Wilson last night in a statement asserted that he may be without power to arm merchant ships and that an extra session of congress is necessary to give him the power. However, he declared

BRITISH AT LAST SEE COMPLEX SITUATION

Press and Public Reflect More Sympathetic Attitude and Condemn the Senate

"THWARTING NATION'S WILL"

By ED L. KEEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, March 5.—For the first time today the British press and public seems to have arrived at a full understanding of the complex position which President Wilson faced because of the senate rule permitting filibustering. Comment both public and in the British newspapers reflected a more sympathetic attitude towards the American executive and the problem than at any time in recent weeks.

On the other hand those who "blockaded" passage of the armed neutrality measure in the senate came in for universal criticism "for thwarting the nation's will," as newspapers expressed it.

that it would be useless to call a special session which would meet under conditions similar to those when the armed neutrality bill was killed.

"A little group of wilful men," says the president in his statement, "representing no opinion but their own, have rendered the great government of the United States helpless and contemptible."

"The termination of the last session of the sixty-fourth congress by constitutional limitation discloses a situation unparalleled in the history of the country, perhaps unparalleled in the history of any modern government.

In the immediate presence of a crisis fraught with more subtle and far-reaching possibilities of national danger than any other the government has known within the whole history of its international relations, the congress has been unable to act either to safeguard the country or to vindicate the elemental rights of its citizens.

"More than 500 of the 831 members of the two houses were ready and anxious to act, the house of representatives had acted by an overwhelming majority, but the senate was unable to act because a little group of eleven senators had determined that it should not.

"The senate has no rules by which debate can be limited or brought to an end; no rules by which dilatory tactics of any kind can be prevented. A single member can stand in the way of action if he have but the physical endurance. The result in this case is a complete paralysis alike of the legislative and of the executive branches of the government.

"This inability of the senate to act has rendered some of the most necessary legislation of the session impossible at a time when the need for it was most pressing and most evident. The bill which would have permitted such combinations of capital and of organization in the export and import trade of the country as the circumstances of international competition have made imperative—a bill which the business judgment of the whole country approved and demanded—has failed.

"The opposition of one or two senators has made it impossible to increase the membership of the Interstate Commerce Commission or to give the altered organization necessary to its efficiency. The conservation bill, which should have released for immediate use the mineral resources which are still locked up in the public lands, now that their release is more imperatively needed

CLASS WILL BE INITIATED

Much Interest Being Shown in K. of P. County Meeting Tonight

Much interest has been displayed in the Knights of Pythias county meeting which will be held at Castle hall tonight. The meeting will be in the nature of a smoker and there will be several speeches, including one by Judge Will M. Sparks. Some of the older members of Ivy Lodge will also be asked to talk briefly. A class of candidates from the Milroy and Rushville lodges will be given the third rank.

REALLY 2 PRIMARY ELECTIONS TUESDAY

Commissioners Cite Fact Right to Challenge Rests With Party Whose Ballot Voter Seeks

SUPPLIES GIVEN OUT TONIGHT

Clerks Urged to Accompany Inspectors to Council Rooms to Hear Explanation of Tabulation

Everything is all set for the primary election tomorrow with the exception of passing out the supplies and that will be done tonight at the council chamber. The voting booths were put in place this afternoon and the polls will open tomorrow morning at six o'clock.

The inspectors will get their supplies from the election commissioners tonight. The council rooms will be open at seven o'clock. The inspectors were asked today to bring the clerks along with them so that the board can explain the second choice voting.

At the last primary practically every election board was required to tabulate the vote a second time because of mistakes in figuring the second choice votes. Members of the board will explain to the clerks the method to be followed in tabulating the vote in order to make the work easy and to save the time of having to recount the ballots. The election board will not take the tally sheets unless they are correct, so it is to the advantage of the election clerks to attend the meeting tonight.

The election commissioners, Verne Norris, Will Newbold and Carl Gunn, stated today that any of the election officials would be welcome to call tonight and the law would be explained to them. At the last primary the official returns were delayed many hours because the boards did not know how to carry forward the second choice votes on the tally sheets. By explaining this to the various boards no trouble should result.

The election commissioners also called attention to the fact that two separate primary elections will be held tomorrow, although conducted from the same polling places. The right to challenge on the grounds of party affiliation belongs to the party whose ballot the voter is seeking.

At least one democratic candidate has made an appeal for republican support at the primary. A republican asking for a democratic ballot, should he be challenged, must make affidavit that he was affiliated with that party at the last preceding election; that he voted for a majority of the candidates of that party and that he intends to support a majority at the coming election. Under these rules a republican could not vote for a democrat or a democrat for a republican. The election board desired to make it plain that two separate primaries are to be held. Not much trouble from this source is expected.

The candidates and party workers were worried today over the prospect for a small vote. The cold weather and heavy snow is expected to keep down the vote.

LAST DAY MARKED BY BITTER FIGHTS

OBJECTION TO COMMISSION

Seventieth Session of General Assembly Passes Much Progressive Legislation—Ends at Midnight

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., March 5.—Bitter fights on important measures marked the closing day of the Indiana legislative session today.

The bill legalizing Sunday moving picture shows was the center of a warm debate in the senate when the measure came up for concurrence in amendments. The senate refused to agree to the amendments and a conference committee was named to attempt to reach a compromise with the house.

Objection was made to the clause creating a film commission. It was indicated that the governor would refuse to sign the bill if it provided for a commission.

Swain's bill establishing separate departments of banking and insurance passed the house. Other bills receiving favorable action in the house were: Kinder's bill providing that workmen will have to wait only seven days instead of fourteen after they have been injured; Blackmore's bill making the attorney general appointive instead of elective; VanAuken's bill abolishing the office of reporter of the supreme court.

The senate passed the following measures: Cravens' tax measures repealing the one and one-half cent levy for the sinking fund; reducing the three-cent levy for the general fund and reducing the vocational education levy from one to one-half a cent; Beardsley's bill changing the registration law so that women will be assured the opportunity of voting for delegates to the constitutional convention.

Midnight tonight will mark the close of the seventieth session of the Indiana general assembly. Both houses continued in session throughout the day, passing and killing bills without devoting much time to deliberation of the measures. Speeches were limited to one minute. Late this afternoon many bills were on the desks of Lieut. Gov. Bush and Speaker Eschbach awaiting disposal.

The session of the legislature has been remarkable in more ways than one.

Progressive legislation, such as the state has never before experienced, was passed. Prohibition, woman suffrage and the calling of a constitutional convention head the list of laws in importance. All three were the objects of the most bitter fights and held up much of the administration legislation until the last few days of the session.

Passage of these measures was due to a large extent to the work of the women who waged the fight for prohibition and a constitutional convention along with their suffrage battle.

Another thing which will make this session of the legislature a memorable one, was the peculiar situation existing in the upper house which was evenly divided between democrats and republicans—twenty-five members of each party being members. Despite this fact, there were only two tie votes cast during the session. These were on the same day or minor motions. The tie was broken by the vote of the Lieut. Gov. Bush.

The funeral services of Mrs. Geneva Gordon, who died Saturday at her home, south of Arlington, will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Arlington Christian church. Burial will take place in the Gordon cemetery.

Max Bruner and Ray Westerfield of Connersville were the guests of friends here yesterday.

GRAND JURY BEGINS INQUIRY

Starts Investigation Into the Death of Russell J. Hilbert.

The Fayette county grand jury today began the investigation into the death of Russell J. Hilbert, who died in convulsions two weeks ago Saturday at his home near Orange, according to advices from Connersville. The boy's father, Herman Hilbert, and his step-mother, Lillian Hilbert, are held in jail charged with first degree murder in an affidavit filed by the prosecutor. Many persons near Orange were summoned to testify before the grand jury. It was stated at Connersville the coroner's verdict in the case was expected late today or tomorrow.

GREENFIELD MAN GETS BIG CONTRACT

Edmund G. Gant Successful Bidder on New Salem Pike, His Estimate Being $45,250

TO COMPLETE ROAD BY NOV. 1

Improvement Regarded as Beginning of Improved Highway to County Line—Other Bids Apr. 2

Edmund G. Gant of Greenfield was awarded the contract for the construction of the Frank M. Capp highway in Rushville township this afternoon by the county commissioners. The contract price was $45,250. Gant's bid was the lowest of the four submitted.

The road is to be constructed of concrete. The highway is commonly called the New Salem pike and the new road will extend from the end of the brick street in Jersey City to the Noble township line, a distance of two and one-half miles. The concrete roadbed is to be sixteen feet wide and on each side is to be a gravel fill, making the road twenty to twenty-five feet wide the entire length.

The paving of this section of the road is looked upon as a beginning of a paved highway to the county line to the southeast. A petition is ready to extend the road on through Noble township, but cannot be presented at this time as Noble township is bonded to the limit, under the law.

Gant promised the commissioners to start work just as soon as the bonds were sold. He stated that the work would start not later than April 1. The contract calls for the completion of the road by November 1.

Other bids were as follows: A. F. Cohee, Frankfort, $45,500; George T. Miller, Lebanon, $46,017; Masters Construction Company, Seymour, $46,124. The estimate on the road was $46,500.

At the morning session the commissioners allowed the usual claims. Bids for the Isaac Webb bridge were ordered advertised for April 2. A case for the clerk's office is also to be bought on this day, bids having been advertised.

The commissioners ordered the Supt. of the county poor farm to submit a report showing the receipts and disbursements for last year. The commissioners have no fault to find with the management of the farm and simply desire the figures in order to see if some way can not be devised to make the farm self-sustaining. It is understood that the expenditures exceeded the receipts last year by about $5,000. The report to be submitted will serve as a basis on which to work out the problem.

George W. Miller and W. A. Posey were appointed re-viewers for the O. W. Righter road in Ripley township. This road was originally the Hill road and was changed to Righter because the commissioners have one road under the name of Hill. The petition calls for the paving of the

IS INDUCTED INTO HIS SECOND TERM

President Wilson Kisses Bible at 12:47, Completing Oath Taken Twice in Two Days

WAR STAMPED ON INAUGURAL

Strain of Peace Runs Through Proceedings Also—Spirit of Time Harks Back to Lincoln

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, March 5.—Flanked by thousands upon thousands of his countrymen, President Wilson was inducted into his second term today. The spirit of the time harked back to the days of Lincoln.

The thrill and solemnity of war was stamped upon the simple democratic ceremony though a strain of peace ran through the proceedings too.

It was just 12:47 o'clock when Wilson kissed the Bible, completing the oath which he had taken twice within two days.

In an open carriage drawn by four horses, in true colonial fashion, President Wilson at 11 o'clock drove through the great iron gates of the White House, down Pennsylvania Avenue, between massed lanes of frantic Americans, to the Capitol, where, after witnessing the swearing-in of his second-in-command, Vice-President Marshall, he was to take his formal oath of office.

Mrs. Wilson following a precedent set by Mrs. Taft, rode to the Capitol with her husband.

The President's carriage was surrounded by a personal escort of the 2nd cavalry, and was followed by the Vice-President's carriage, also drawn by four horses, escorted by the famous black horse troop of the Culver Military Institute of Indiana, Marshall's home state.

A third carriage contained the President's military aides and inaugural officials.

As the small party clattered down the flag decked way, storms of cheers followed him along the historic way. The President frequently arose and, hat in hand, acknowledged the acclamation.

Arriving at the Capitol, President and Mrs. Wilson and Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall were met by a special committee of Senators and Representatives and escorted to the President's Room and the Vice-President's Room, both just off the Senate chamber.

Immediately afterwards they proceeded under a distinguished escort of Congressmen to the Senate chamber. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Marshall were escorted to a specially prepared section of the Senate gallery, to witness the ceremony of swearing-in the Vice-President and the new senators. Custom forbids the floor of the Senate to women of all ranks.

Arriving at the Senate Chamber,

sery than ever, and the bill which would make the unused water power of the country immediately available for industry have both failed though they have been under consideration throughout the sessions of two congresses and have twice passed by the house of representatives.

The appropriations for the army have failed, along with the appropriations for the civil establishment of the government, the appropriations for the military academy at West Point, and the general deficiency bill. It has proved impossible to extend the powers of the shipping board to meet the special needs of the new situation into which our country's commerce has been forced or drawn, or to increase the gold reserve of our national banking system to meet the unusual circumstances of the existing financial situation.

"It would not cure the difficulty to call the sixty-fifth congress in extraordinary session. The paralysis of the senate would remain. The purpose and the spirit of action are not lacking now. The congress is more definitely united in thought and purpose at this moment. I venture to say, than it has been within the memory of any man now in its membership. There is not only the most united patriotic purpose, but the other members have in view are perfectly clear and definite. But the senate can not act unless its leaders can obtain unanimous consent. Its majority is powerless, helpless. In the midst of a crisis of extraordinary peril, when only definite and decided action can make the nation safe or shield it from war, itself, by aggression of others, action is impossible.

"Although as a matter of fact the nation and the representatives of the nation stand back of the executive with unprecedented unanimity and spirit, the impression made abroad will, of course, be that it is not so and that other governments may act as they please without fear that this government can do anything at all. We can not explain. The legislation is incredible.

"The senate of the United States is the only legislative body in the world which can not act when its majority is ready for action. A little group of wilful men, representing no opinion but their own, have rendered the great government of the United States helpless and contemptible.

"The remedy? There is but one remedy. The only remedy is that the rules of the senate shall be so altered that it can act. The country can be relied upon to draw the moral. I believe that the senate can be relied on to supply the means of action and save the country from disaster."

GERMAN ATTACK REPULSED

London, March 5.—Bulgaria considers she must adopt the attitude of her ally, Germany, and break with America, according to dispatches reaching here today from a semi-official Bulgarian news agency. These advices declare the Bulgarian government will shortly send a note to the United States explaining Bulgaria's adherence to Germany and will instruct the Bulgarian minister at Washington to demand his passport.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Rushville people.

Mrs. Lizzie Boren, 840 W. 9th St., Rushville, says: "About six years ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. The kidney secretions were very annoying in passage and the trouble kept getting worse. Doctors said it was gravel, but none of them ever did me any good. A short time ago I heard of how someone else was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a box at Wollcott's Drug Store. They helped me and I kept on using them. I have taken four boxes so far and the pain has left and I feel a great deal better."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Boren had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

For the Past Three Years

The management of the city's affairs have been efficiently and economically handled under the guiding hand of MAYOR C. L. BEBOU. Why make a change?

Past experiences should prove a benefit in the future. Business-like methods have prevailed during this period and there never has been a time when he failed to devote his time to the city's interests. In this period Mayor Bebout has not missed a single session of the city council, and in addition to these duties has disposed of 396 cases in police court.

Platform pledges have been kept regarding law enforcement and to this end Rushville has been made a better place in which to reside.

It is not necessary to have a lawyer at the head of the city government. In the past three years the City has lost but one law suit—that a hopeless case—taken to the higher courts in the interests of the merchants of the city.

SCOTT'S SEMI-ULSION
STRENGTHENS FONY CHILDREN

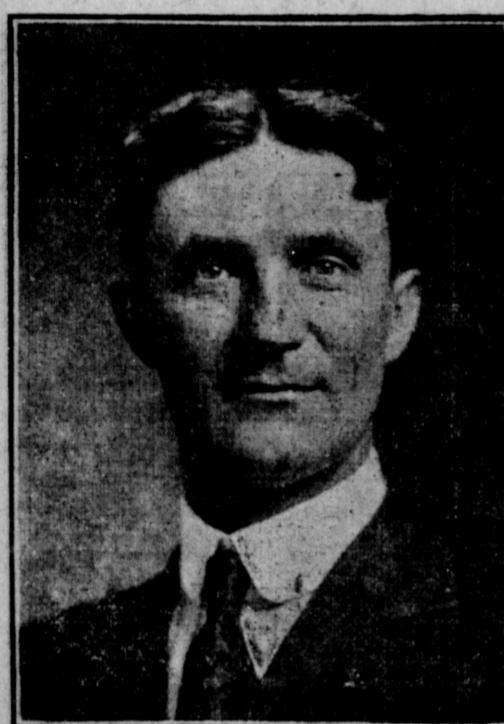

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 600 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

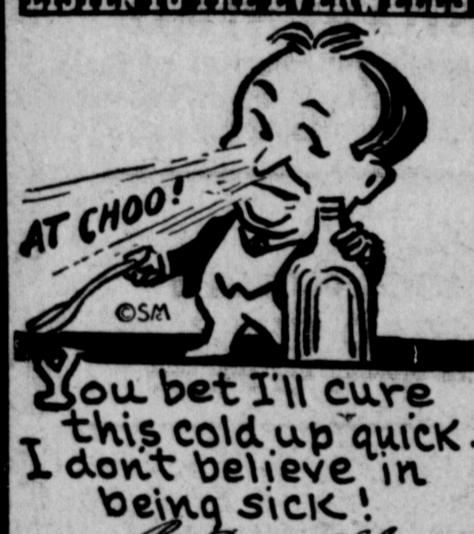

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithium-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Enormous Jump in Exports

American exports totaled $613,441,020 in January, exceeding by nearly $100,000,000 the previous high monthly record of $521,650,904 made the preceding month, according to a statement issued by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, of the department of commerce. High prices are thought responsible for much of the recent increased value of foreign trade. Imports for January are given at $241,674,851, a decided increase over the $204,834,188 of December and the $176,988,305 of November. Both imports and exports for January show decided increases over any previous January in the history of American trade.

The total exports for the seven months ending January, 1917, were $3,614,244,066, as against $2,182,898,752 and $1,334,660,148, respectively for the same periods in 1916 and 1915. For the twelve months ending January, 1917, the total ex-

Total trade for the years ending January, 1917, 1916, and 1915, were, $8,213,806,443, $5,457,627,264 and $3,934,118,155, respectively. The imports of merchandise during the seven months ending January, 1917, were $1,348,232,550, against $1,097,137,816, and $930,508,236 for the same periods in 1916 and 1915.

Of the month's imports, 74.61 per cent entered free of duty as compared with 73.75 per cent in January 1916, and 62.54 per cent in January, 1915.

Gold imports totaled $58,926,258 in January, 1917, as compared with $15,008,232 in January, 1916, and $6,896,398 in January, 1915. The exports of gold in January, 1917, were $20,719,898, while the same periods in 1916 and 1915 recorded $10,213,517 and $691,509, respectively. For the seven months ending January, 1917, gold exports were $110,106,668 and in a like period in 1916, $34,056,908, as against $139,333,130 in 1915.

RUMOR OF SPECIAL SESSION IS HEARD

Little Credence Placed in Them, However, as Governor Could Not Hope to do Much

LINE-UP WOULD BE THE SAME

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 5.—That a special session of the legislature may be called by Gov. Goodrich, was rumored at the capitol today as the present session neared its close. The special session would be called it was reported, because many measures which the governor has favored, were not enacted.

The special session talk was not taken seriously by most of those in close touch with the administration officials, however. It was pointed out that even should a special session be called, its make-up would be the same as that now closing and the bills undoubtedly would not find any more favor with the legislators at an extra session than during the regular meeting.

The total exports for the seven months ending January, 1917, were $3,614,244,066, as against $2,182,898,752 and $1,334,660,148, respectively for the same periods in 1916 and 1915. For the twelve months ending January, 1917, the total ex-

Light is a priceless illumination the Lord arranged to shed on the world twelve hours a day. But He might have known we couldn't be satisfied with it.

Judging by the actions of birds and chickens and other close-to-nature animals, we have always thought that dusk was a suggestion and darkness a broad hint to folks that it was time to go to bed.

But do we do it? Not on your incandescent bulb! We turn Mr. Edison's juice loose and let the meter run races with our pocket books while we sit around till midnight and wreck our disposition for the next day.

And if we go out on the street we run chances of being winked at by a beer sign or a movie ad.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN. RUSHVILLE, IND.

FIRST GAME WILL BE SEVEREST TEST

Rushville High School is Matched With Richmond in Opening Contest of Tournament

EASY SAILING AFTER THAT

The Rushville high school basketball team will undergo its severest test of the district tournament at Richmond next Friday and Saturday in the first game of the tourney. The official schedules of the district tournaments were announced today and disclose that Rushville will play Richmond in the opening contest of this district at one o'clock Friday afternoon.

Richmond is the only team Rushville fears and is believed to be the only quintet that can defeat the locals. Many see an advantage in this arrangement because Rushville men will be in condition to play their best game at the very outset.

If Rushville should defeat Richmond, they would play Union City at nine o'clock Saturday morning. In case the first two games were victories, the local high school five would play the winner of the 8:30 game Friday night, which would be either Westport or Milroy at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. In that way Rushville would win a place in the final at 8 o'clock Saturday when they would play the winner of the 3:30 game Saturday afternoon, which might be Sandusky, Cambridge City, Modoc, Monroe, Clarksburg, Hagerstown, Liberty or Greensburg.

SAVE THE BABIES.

These are authentic quotations from the pamphlet on babies by Dr. L. Emmett Holt of Columbia University and Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of Union University.

At 15 months the baby may have at first one teaspoonful and later a tablespoonful of rare scraped beef, mutton or chicken. When 18 months old he may have one-half of a mealily baked potato daily. When two years old he may have most of the fresh green vegetables when thoroughly cooked and finely mashed. More on diet will be told tomorrow.

Healthy Skin Depends on Kidneys

The skin and the intestines, which work together with the kidneys to throw out the poisons of the body, do a part of the work, but a clean body and a healthy one depends on the kidneys. If the kidneys are clogged with toxic poisons you suffer from stiffness in the knees in the morning on arising, your joints seem "rusty," you may have rheumatic pains, pain in the back, stiff neck, headaches, sometimes swollen feet, or neuralgic pains—all due to the uric acid or toxic poisons in the blood. This is the time to go to the nearest drug store and simply obtain a 50c package of Anuric (double strength), the discovery of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. Then drink a cup of hot water before meals, with an Anuric Tablet, and notice the gratifying results. You will find that Anuric dissolves uric acid almost as water does sugar.

OPERATION AVOIDED.

Lafayette, Ind.—"Three years ago I was taken to the hospital—all arrangements made for an operation, but when the doctors were uncertain as to whether it was to be for appendicitis or woman's trouble I insisted upon being taken home until they were of one opinion as to my ailment. Then a friend told me what wonderful remedies Dr. Pierce's were, selling right from the drug shelves, and thought they might give me relief. I bought a bottle each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a box of 'Lotion Tablets.' These relieved me of a catarrhal condition, all abdominal pain, etc. But I took the medicines for almost a year to make sure of a complete recovery. Today I am in absolutely good health."—Mrs. U. S. INAUGURATION CEREMONY TAKES PLACE TODAY

an attendant announced: "The President of the United States."

President Wilson entered and, proceeded to the front of the chamber, was seated before the great marble rostrum of the Vice-President.

Here, Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, President pro tempore of the Senate, administered the oath of office to the Vice-President.

As the brief ceremony, which induced her husband into the second highest office the nation can accord, was completed, Mrs. Marshall, from the gallery waved a tiny handkerchief down to the Vice-President.

The Vice-President then assumed his chair as President of the Senate, and in turn administered the oath of fidelity to the incoming Senators. There were 32 Senators-elect or re-elected Senators to take the oath.

Following the ceremonies in the Senate chamber, the President followed by the entire company, proceeded to the East Portico of the Capitol, where the final swearing in of the President was to be held.

A vast expanse of flag-draped stands completely covered the side of the great building.

Wave after wave of applause swept the stands as 1200 midshipmen from the United States Naval Academy swung up the avenue in close formation. Uncle Sam's embryo Admirals—400 more of them this year than at President Wilson's first inaugural—were in full uniform, their heavy blue sea coats, brass buttons and white gloves, presenting a striking picture. And for sea-fighters, they found their "land legs" very well, as line after line passed in perfect formation.

Coming abreast of the Presidential stand, the middies saluted and received from President Wilson a cordial acknowledgement. Mrs. Wilson, and Cabinet ladies with her, waved their handkerchiefs enthusiastically.

The middies were followed by the West Point cadet corps—700 strong—in full regimental regalia. Their historic gray pea-jacket uniforms, crossed over the chest with white straps, and the tall grenadier caps, brought forth enthusiasm as six companies of the young officers swept by President Wilson also greeted them cordially.

Arriving on the Presidential stand the President, flanked by the justices of the Supreme Court, Governors of States, Senators and Representatives, Ambassadors and Ministers Plenipotentiary of foreign governments, ranking officers of the land and naval forces of the United States and members of his Cabinet, received the oath from Chief Justice White of the Supreme Court.

From the President's appearance until the assembled company was seated and the Chief Justice rose to administer the final ceremony, continuous applause swept around the stand. Hundreds of thousands of people massed the great plaza, overflowing into the Capitol grounds in a great surging sea of humanity.

As the President, however, facing the Chief Justice repeated the words permitted only to the nation's highest, the applause seemed to die away, and as the first citizen raised his hand in solemn assent, there was silence among the thousands.

Soon, however, the crowd burst the leashes of reserves and as the President stepped forward to deliver his inaugural address—his second—he was forced to pause to acknowledge the tribute.

Following his address, the President, Mrs. Wilson and the Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall returned up Pennsylvania Avenue at a brisk gallop to the White House, where they were refreshed by a light luncheon before entering the reviewing stand.

At the President's departure from the Capitol, the great procession started to form and move slowly westward toward the Executive Mansion.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosty feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Nothing like Musterole for aching children. Keep it handy for instant use.

WINTER ATTEMPTS TO "LINGER" A BIT

Blizzard Sunday Sends Mercury Down and Puts Crimp in Spring Sonnets and Bonnets

TWELVE ABOVE AT 8 O'CLOCK

The business of winter "lingering" in what looked, last week, like the "lap of spring," put a decided crimp in spring sonnets and bonnets, robins and violets. The "much colder" weather predicted by the weather forecaster Saturday proved to be colder weather, but it was nothing compared to some of the "weather" which Rush county people have experienced this winter.

The lowest mark was registered at eight o'clock this morning on the government thermometer at Mauzy when the mercury stood at twelve degrees above zero. Later in the morning the sun began to get in its deadly work and the temperature rose rapidly.

County weather observer, Elwood Kirkwood said this morning that as long as the cold, raw wind came down out of the north, it would be cold, but that the effects of the wind would be offset somewhat by the sun's rays. The sun is fast moving north so that its heat is felt more and more each day.

The county weather observer estimated that approximately three inches of snow fell Sunday and last night. There was a blinding snow storm from the northeast most of Sunday. The snow was light and fluffy drifted badly, impeding travel on country roads.

The Gregg woman was found in the Prather rooms Sunday. It is understood that she confessed to having purchased liquor of Prather on several different occasions. The Cadle woman is understood to have been at the Prather rooms Saturday night.

PHILLIES HAVE ONLY FAIR SHOW

Star Seems to Have Set Just as Alexander Attained the Height of Efforts.

ARE NOT GIVEN PENNANT

No Changes in Team This Year—Star Pitcher Cannot do it all, is Opinion.

Philadelphia, March 5.—The star of the Phillies seems to have set just as Grover Cleveland Alexander attained the height of his efforts. Critics are not placing them any better than third, with small chance that they will be that good.

The punch that has featured former Philadelphia National league clubs, the superb pitching of Alexander, and excellent fielding will not be noted in such strong quantities this year as formerly.

Alexander cannot win a pennant unaided, nor can he hold his team in a first division berth. Unless some pitcher can be developed to help the Nebraska wonder Philadelphia cannot hope to make much of a bid for a pennant. Rixey isn't capable—at least he never has shown that he is. He is too much of a good man today and a poor one tomorrow. The aid of Al Demaree, Giant chaser, will be missing this year, and Jimmy Lavendar is scarcely capable of doing much. Erskine Mayer probably will cut small figure.

Joe Oeschger is the logical man to save the Phillies. If he can combine some good hurling with wonderful efforts of Alexander the Phillips will have some chance.

There will be no change in the Phillips this season. Fred Luderus, a good, steady, smart ball player will be at first base. He is a hard hitter, an excellent fielder, and an aggressive man at every stage. There are few first basemen better than he.

Bert Niehoff, never considered better than just mediocre, will be at second base in all probability.

Bancroft, a real star, has no serious opposition at shortstop and he doubtless will be found there again.

Milton Stock, a good third sacker, will be on that station.

The infield is just good—no better. There are plenty of infiels just as good and several that are better.

No more can be said of the outfield. Whitted is a remarkable ball player, but his indifference has hurt his playing. He is not a whole outfield, nor is he a Ty Cobb. Dode Paskert's worth is gradually declining. Goode or Cooper probably will be found in the other garden.

The worth of the pitching staff is summed up in the foregoing estimates. Alexander can do wonders if he has help.

The catching staff is splendid. Bill Killefer and Burns or Adams forms a staff that would be welcome in any National league club.

IS FIFTH MAN TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

Vice-President Marshall of Indiana Has Unusual Distinction in Taking Office Today.

RECEIVED SHARE OF TRIBUTE

Oath Was Administered by Senator Saulsbury Before Large Crowd in Senate Chamber.

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 5.—For the fifth time in the history of the United States, a Vice-President was inaugurated to succeed himself, when Thomas R. Marshall, Indiana, at noon today subscribed to the oath of office as President Wilson's second in command.

But four other Vice-Presidents have ever been chosen for a second term of office. They were: John Adams, first Vice-President; George Clinton, under Presidents Jefferson, and Madison, and who died during his second term; Daniel C. Tompkins, under President Monroe; and John C. Calhoun, under Presidents John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson, and who resigned to enter the Senate following his re-election.

Vice-President Marshall, although overshadowed by President Wilson, received today his goodly share of the nation's tribute. By strictest impartiality as President of the Senate during the stormy sessions of the past Administration, the Vice-President has gained the respect of the upper house, and the warm friendship of the men who run things in Washington.

At 11:45, the robed justices of the Supreme Court filed into the Senate, and took places directly before the Vice-President's rostrum.

Following prayer by the chaplain of the Senate, the special session was called to order, and Sen. Saulsbury administered the oath. The Senators and members then adjourned to attend the administering of the Presidential oath.

SOUNDS NEW DOCTRINE OF WORLD PEACE IN INAUGURAL

President, in Same Breath, Warns U. S. May Have to go Farther Than Armed Neutrality

NOT BY OUR PURPOSE, HE SAYS

Pleads for Limitation of World Armament and Equal Responsibility for Maintaining Peace

EQUALITY OF RIGHTS AS WELL

Urge Crushing of All Attempts Within a Nation to Organize Revolt Against Another

By ROBERT J. BENDER

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, March 5.—President Wilson sounded a new doctrine in internationalism and world peace in his inaugural address today; but in the same breath warned that the United States "may require a more immediate association" with the war than mere armed neutrality.

His principal plea for world peace spoken before the thousands attending his second inauguration called forth:

Limitation of world armament. Equal interests and responsibility for maintaining peace.

Equality of nations in all matters of right or privilege.

Destruction of the "armed balance of power."

That all the world should support no other power than the view that "governments derive all their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Freedom of the seas equal to all. Crushing of all attempts within a nation to organize or assist a revolution against another nation.

The speech solemnly suggested that despite the war fires raging and despite the possibility that this nation must take a broader hand, still that peace is coming soon.

"The shadows that now lie dark upon our path will soon be dispelled," the president declared. "Armed neutrality is our stand. Yet this may not suffice.

"We may even be drawn by circumstances, not by our own purpose or desire, to a more active assertion of our rights as we see them and a more immediate association with the great struggle itself."

ASKS FOR LEGAL OPINION

Wilson Wants to Know in 24 Hours if he Can Arm Merchantant

(By United Press)

Washington, March 5.—President Wilson has asked the legal authorities of the government to give him an opinion within 24 hours as to whether or not he has the power to furnish armament for American merchantmen without special authority by congress.

Upon this condition depends whether the president will go against the senate's failure to act on the armed neutrality bill.

To fix responsibility before the country seventy-six senators, thirty republicans and forty-six democrats signed a manifesto Saturday night to tell the world that they favored the passage of the armed neutrality bill. This declaration, embodied in the record of the senate, referred to the fact that the house Thursday night had passed a similar bill by a vote of 403 to 13 and also pointed out that the senate rule permitting unlimited debate gave a small minority the chance to throttle the will of the big majority.

President Wilson last night in a statement asserted that he may be without power to arm merchantmen and that an extra session of congress is necessary to give him the power. However, he declared

BRITISH AT LAST SEE COMPLEX SITUATION

Press and Public Reflect More Sympathetic Attitude and Condemn the Senate

"THWARTING NATION'S WILL"

By ED L. KEEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

London, March 5.—For the first time today the British press and public seems to have arrived at a full understanding of the complex position which President Wilson faced because of the senate rule permitting filibustering. Comment both public and in the British newspapers reflected a more sympathetic attitude towards the American executive and the problem than at any time in recent weeks.

On the other hand those who "blockaded" passage of the armed neutrality measure in the senate came in for universal criticism "for thwarting the nation's will," as newspapers expressed it.

that it would be useless to call a special session which would meet under conditions similar to those when the armed neutrality bill was killed.

"A little group of wilful men," says the president in his statement, "representing no opinion but their own, have rendered the great government of the United States helpless and contemptible."

"The termination of the last session of the sixty-fourth congress by constitutional limitation discloses a situation unparalleled in the history of the country, perhaps unparalleled in the history of any modern government. In the immediate presence of a crisis fraught with more subtle and far-reaching possibilities of national danger than any other the government has known within the whole history of its international relations, the congress has been unable to act either to safeguard the country or to vindicate the elemental rights of its citizens.

"More than 500 of the 631 members of the two houses were ready and anxious to act, the house of representatives had acted by an overwhelming majority, but the senate was unable to act because a little group of eleven senators had determined that it should not.

"The senate has no rules by which debate can be limited or brought to an end; no rules by which dilatory tactics of any kind can be prevented. A single member can stand in the way of action if he have but the physical endurance. The result in this case is a complete paralysis alike of the legislative and of the executive branches of the government.

"This inability of the senate to act has rendered some of the most necessary legislation of the session impossible at a time when the need for it was most pressing and most evident. The bill which would have permitted such combinations of capital and of organization in the export and import trade of the country as the circumstances of international competition have made imperative—a bill which the business judgment of the whole country approved and demanded—has failed.

"The opposition of one or two senators has made it impossible to increase the membership of the Interstate Commerce Commission or to give the altered organization necessary to its efficiency. The conservation bill, which should have released for immediate use the mineral resources which are still locked up in the public lands, now that their release is more imperatively needed,

Pr. President Wilson last night in a statement asserted that he may be without power to arm merchantmen and that an extra session of congress is necessary to give him the power. However, he declared

Much interest has been displayed in the Knights of Pythias county meeting which will be held at Castle hall tonight. A class of candidates from the Milroy and Rushville lodges will be given the third rank.

REALLY 2 PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY

Commissioners Cite Fact Right to Challenge Rests With Party Whose Ballot Voter Seeks

SUPPLIES GIVEN OUT TONIGHT

Clerks Urged to Accompany Inspectors to Council Rooms to Hear Explanation of Tabulation

Everything is all set for the primary election tomorrow with the exception of passing out the supplies and that will be done tonight at the council chamber. The voting booths were put in place this afternoon and the polls will open tomorrow morning at six o'clock.

The inspectors will get their supplies from the election commissioners tonight. The council rooms will be open at seven o'clock. The inspectors were asked today to bring the clerks along with them so that the board can explain the second choice voting.

At the last primary practically every election board was required to tabulate the vote a second time because of mistakes in figuring the second choice votes. Members of the board will explain to the clerks the method to be followed in tabulating the vote in order to make the work easy and to save the time of having to recount the ballots. The election board will not take the tally sheets unless they are correct, so it is to the advantage of the election clerks to attend the meeting tonight.

The election commissioners also called attention to the fact that two separate primary elections will be held tomorrow, although conducted from the same polling places.

The right to challenge on the grounds of party affiliation belongs to the party whose ballot the voter is seeking.

At least one democratic candidate has made an appeal for republican support at the primary. A republican asking for a democratic ballot, should he be challenged, must make affidavit that he was affiliated with that party at the last preceding election; that he voted for a majority of the candidates of that party and that he intends to support a majority at the coming election. Under these rules a republican could not vote for a democrat or a democrat for a republican. The election board desired to make it plain that two separate primaries are to be held. Not much trouble from this source is expected.

The candidates and party workers were worried today over the prospect for a small vote. The cold weather and heavy snow in expect-

LAST DAY MARKED BY BITTER FIGHTS

OBJECTION TO COMMISSION

Seventieth Session of General Assembly Passes Much Progressive Legislation—Ends at Midnight

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., March 5.—Bitter fights on important measures marked the closing day of the Indiana legislative session today.

The bill legalizing Sunday moving picture shows was the center of a warm debate in the senate when the measure came up for concurrence in amendments. The senate refused to agree to the amendments and a conference committee was named to attempt to reach a compromise with the house.

Objection was made to the clause creating a film commission. It was indicated that the governor would refuse to sign the bill if it provided for a commission.

Swain's bill establishing separate departments of banking and insurance passed the house. Other bills receiving favorable action in the house were: Kinder's bill providing that workmen will have to wait only seven days instead of fourteen after they have been injured; Blackmore's bill making the attorney general appointive instead of elective; VanAuken's bill abolishing the office of reporter of the supreme court.

The senate passed the following measures: Cravens' tax measures repealing the one and one-half cent levy for the sinking fund; reducing the three-cent levy for the general fund and reducing the vocational education levy from one to one-half a cent; Beardsley's bill changing the registration law so that women will be assured the opportunity of voting for delegates to the constitutional convention.

Midnight tonight will mark the close of the seventieth session of the Indiana general assembly. Both houses continued in session throughout the day, passing and killing bills without devoting much time to deliberation of the measures. Speeches were limited to one minute. Late this afternoon many bills were on the desks of Lieut. Gov. Bush and Speaker Eschbach awaiting disposal.

The session of the legislature has been remarkable in more ways than one.

Progressive legislation, such as the state has never before experienced, was passed. Prohibition, woman suffrage and the calling of a constitutional convention head the list of laws in importance. All three were the objects of the most bitter fights and held up much of the administration legislation until the last few days of the session.

Passage of these measures was due to a large extent to the work of the women who waged the fight for prohibition and a constitutional convention along with their suffrage battle.

Another thing which will make this session of the legislature a memorable one, was the peculiar situation existing in the upper house which was evenly divided between democrats and republicans—twenty-five members of each party being members. Despite this fact, there were only two tie votes cast during the session. These were on the same day or minor motions. The tie was broken by the vote of the Lieut. Gov. Bush.

The funeral services of Mrs. Geneva Gordon, who died Saturday at her home, south of Arlington, will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Arlington Christian church. Burial will take place in the Gordon cemetery.

GRAND JURY BEGINS INQUIRY

Starts Investigation Into the Death of Russell J. Hilbert.

The Fayette county grand jury today began the investigation into the death of Russell J. Hilbert, who died in convulsions two weeks ago Saturday at his home near Orange, according to advices from Connersville. The boy's father, Herman Hilbert, and his step-mother, Lillian Hilbert, are held in jail charged with first degree murder in an affidavit filed by the prosecutor. Many persons near Orange were summoned to testify before the grand jury. It was stated at Connersville the coroner's verdict in the case was expected late today or tomorrow.

GREENFIELD MAN GETS BIG CONTRACT

Edmund G. Gant Successful Bidder on New Salem Pike, His Estimate Being $45,250

TO COMPLETE ROAD BY NOV. 1

Improvement Regarded as Beginning of Improved Highway to County Line—Other Bids Apr. 2

Edmund G. Gant of Greenfield was awarded the contract for the construction of the Frank M. Capp highway in Rushville township this afternoon by the county commissioners. The contract price was $45,250. Gant's bid was the lowest of the four submitted.

The road is to be constructed of concrete. The highway is commonly called the New Salem pike and the new road will extend from the end of the brick street in Jersey City to the Noble township line, a distance of two and one-half miles. The concrete roadbed is to be sixteen feet wide and on each side is to be a gravel fill, making the road twenty to twenty-five feet wide the entire length.

The paving of this section of the road is looked upon as a beginning of a paved highway to the county line to the southeast. A petition is ready to extend the road on through Noble township, but cannot be presented at this time as Noble township is bonded to the limit, under the law.

Gant promised the commissioners to start work just as soon as the bonds were sold. He stated that the work would start not later than April 1. The contract calls for the completion of the road by November 1.

Other bids were as follows: A. F. Cohee, Frankfort, $45,500; George T. Miller, Lebanon, $46,017; Masters Construction Company, Seymour, $46,124. The estimate on the road was $46,500.

At the morning session the commissioners allowed the usual claims.

Bids for the Isaac Webb bridge were ordered advertised for April 2. A case for the clerk's office is also to be bought on this day, bids having been advertised.

The commissioners ordered the Supt. of the county poor farm to submit a report showing the receipts and disbursements for last year. The commissioners have no fault to find with the management of the farm and simply desire the figures in order to see if some way can not be devised to make the farm self-sustaining. It is understood that the expenditures exceeded the receipts last year by about $5,000. The report to be submitted will serve as a basis on which to work out the problem.

George W. Miller and W. A. Posey were appointed re-viewers for the O. W. Righter road in Ripley township. This road will originally be the Hill road and was changed to Righter because the commissioners have a road under the name of Hill. The trial is set for Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. Matlock was fined for public intoxication Saturday by Mayor Beabout and told where he secured his liquor. The exact transaction is not known, but Dunwoody declares they bought the whiskey of Matlock. Matlock was arrested late Saturday afternoon and was unable to secure bond.

IS INDUCTED INTO HIS SECOND TERM

President Wilson Kisses Bible at 12:47, Completing Oath Taken Twice in Two Days

WAR STAMPED ON INAUGURAL

Strain of Peace Runs Through Proceedings Also—Spirit of Time Harks Back to Lincoln

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 5.—Flanked by thousands upon thousands of his countrymen, President Wilson was inducted into his second term today. The spirit of the time harked back to the days of Lincoln.

The thrill and solemnity of war was stamped upon the simple democratic ceremony though a strain of peace ran through the proceedings too.

It was just 12:47 o'clock when Wilson kissed the Bible, completing the oath which he had taken twice within two days.

In an open carriage drawn by four horses, in true colonial fashion, President Wilson at 11 o'clock drove through the great iron gates of the White House, down Pennsylvania Avenue, between massed lines of frantic Americans, to the Capitol, where, after witnessing the swearing-in of his second-in-command, Vice-President Marshall, he was to take his formal oath of office.

Mrs. Wilson following a precedent set by Mrs. Taft, rode to the Capitol with her husband.

The President's carriage was surrounded by a personal escort of the 2nd cavalry, and was followed by the Vice-President's carriage, also drawn by four horses, escorted by the famous black horse troop of the Culver Military Institute of Indiana, Marshall's home state.

A third carriage contained the President's military aides and inaugural officials.

As the small party clattered down the flag decked way, storms of cheers followed him along the historic way. The President frequently arose and, hat in hand, acknowledged the acclamation.

Arriving at the Capitol, President and Mrs. Wilson and Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall were met by a special committee of Senators and Representatives and escorted to the President's Room and the Vice-President's Room, both just off the Senate chamber.

Immediately afterwards they proceeded under a distinguished escort of Congressmen to the Senate chamber. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Marshall were escorted to a specially prepared section of the Senate gallery, to witness the ceremony of swearing-in the Vice-President and the new senators. Custom forbids the floor of the Senate to women of all ranks.

IN JAIL FOR SELLING BOOZE

Alleged He Sold Charles McDaniel and Emanuel Dunwoody Whiskey

Bert Matlock is held in jail on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor. It is alleged that Matlock sold some whiskey to Charles McDaniel of near Sexton and Emanuel Dunwoody of this city. The trial is set for Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. Matlock was fined for public intoxication Saturday by Mayor Beabout and told where he secured his liquor. The exact transaction is not known, but Dunwoody declares they bought the whiskey of Matlock. Matlock was arrested late Saturday afternoon and was unable to secure bond.

SOUNDS NEW DOCTRINE OF WORLD PEACE IN INAUGURAL

sober than ever, and the bill which would make the unused water power of the country immediately available for industry have both failed though they have been under consideration throughout the sessions of two congresses and have twice passed by the house of representatives.

The appropriations for the army have failed, along with the appropriations for the civil establishment of the government, the appropriations for the military academy at West Point, and the general deficiency bill. It has proved impossible to extend the powers of the shipping board to meet the special needs of the new situation into which our country's commerce has been forced or drawn, or to increase the gold reserve of our national banking system to meet the unusual circumstances of the existing financial situation.

It would not cure the difficulty to call the sixty-fifth congress in extraordinary session. The paralysis of the senate would remain. The purpose and the spirit of action are not lacking now. The congress is more definitely united in thought and purpose at this moment. I venture to say, than it has been within the memory of any man now in its membership. There is not only the most united patriotic purpose, but the other members have in view the welfare of their constituents. But leaders can obtain unanimous consent. Its majority is powerless, helpless. In the midst of a crisis of extraordinary peril, when only definite and decided action can make the nation safe or shield it from war, itself, by aggression of others, action is impossible.

"Although as a matter of fact the nation and the representatives of the nation stand back of the executive with unprecedented unanimity and spirit, the impression made abroad will, of course, be that it is not so and that other governments may act as they please without fear that this government can do anything at all. We can not explain. The legislation is incredible.

"The senate of the United States is the only legislative body in the world which can not act when its majority is ready for action. A little group of wilful men, representing no opinion but their own, have rendered the great government of the United States helpless and contemptible.

"The remedy? There is but one remedy. The only remedy is that the rules of the senate shall be so altered that it can act. The country can be relied upon to draw the moral. I believe that the senate can be relied on to supply the means of action and save the country from disaster."

GERMAN ATTACK REPULSED

London, March 5.—Bulgaria considers she must adopt the attitude of her ally, Germany, and break with America, according to dispatches reaching here today from a semi-official Bulgarian news agency. For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Rushville people.

Mrs. Lizzie Boren, 840 W. 9th St., Rushville, says: "About six years ago I began to have trouble with my kidneys. The kidney secretions were very annoying in passage and the trouble kept getting worse. Doctors said it was gravel, but none of them ever did me any good. A short time ago I heard of how someone else was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a box at Wollcott's Drug Store. They helped me and I kept on using them. I have taken four boxes so far and the pain has left and I feel a great deal better."

The management of the city's affairs have been efficiently and economically handled under the guiding hand of MAYOR C. L. BEBOUT. Why make a change?

Past experiences should prove a benefit in the future. Business-like methods have prevailed during this period and there never has been a time when he failed to devote his time to the city's interests. In this period Mayor Bebout has not missed a single session of the city council, and in addition to these duties has disposed of 396 cases in police court.

Platform pledges have been kept regarding law enforcement and to this end Rushville has been made a better place in which to reside.

It is not necessary to have a lawyer at the head of the city government. In the past three years the City has lost but one law suit—that a hopeless case—taken to the higher courts in the interests of the merchants of the city.

from realizing his ambition as an artist. He suddenly inherits a moderate fortune and a home in the country. His oldest daughter is just growing into womanhood. A beautiful adventuress learns of the father's inheritance and wagers that before the summer is over she will have him at her feet. The daughter is loved by two men, one honest and the other a scoundrel who preaches to her the doctrine of free love. She believes marriage is a success and points to her parents as an example. The situation is especially strong when she learns that her father is carrying on an affair with this other woman.

Lew Fields, the great comedian, supported by Doris Kenyon, will be seen in "The Man Who Stood Still" at the Princess theater tonight. The picture recites a story of common people that do common, everyday things and it has a thread of humor that is displayed to best advantage by Fields. Douglas Fairbanks and Jewel Carmen will appear in "Manhattan Madness," Tuesday, Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria" Thursday, and Clara Kimball Young in "The Foolish Virgin" Friday.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your back is aching or bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 600 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with Lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent Lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

LIVE-UP WOULD BE THE SAME

Enormous Jump in Exports
(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 5.—That a special session of the legislature may be called by Gov. Goodrich, was rumored at the capitol today as the present session neared its close. The special session would be called it was reported, because many measures which the governor has favored, were not enacted.

The special session talk was not taken seriously by most of those in close touch with the administration officials, however. It was pointed out that even should a special session be called, its make-up would be the same as that now closing and the bills undoubtedly would not find any more favor with the legislators at an extra session than during the regular meeting.

Light.

Light is a priceless illumination the Lord arranged to shed on the world twelve hours a day. But He might have known we couldn't be satisfied with it.

Judging by the actions of birds and chickens and other close-to-nature animals, we have always thought that dusk was a suggestion and darkness a broad hint to folks that it was time to go to bed.

But do we do it? Not on your incandescent bulb! We turn Mr. Edison's juice loose and let the meter run races with our pocket books while we sit around till midnight and wreck our disposition for the next day.

And if we go out on the street we run chances of being winked at by a beer sign or a movie ad.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

FIRST GAME WILL BE SEVEREST TEST

Rushville High School is Matched With Richmond in Opening Contest of Tournament

EASY SAILING AFTER THAT

The Rushville high school basketball team will undergo its severest test of the district tournament at Richmond next Friday and Saturday in the first game of the tourney. The official schedules of the district tournaments were announced today and disclose that Rushville will play Richmond in the opening contest of this district at one o'clock Friday afternoon.

Richmond is the only team Rushville fears and is believed to be the only quintet that can defeat the locals. Many see an advantage in this arrangement because Rushville men will be in condition to play their best game at the very outset.

If Rushville should defeat Richmond, they would play Union City at nine o'clock Saturday morning. In case the first two games were victories, the local high school five would play the winner of the 8:30 game Friday night, which would be either Westport or Milroy at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. In that way Rushville would win a place in the final at 8 o'clock Saturday when they would play the winner of the 3:30 game Saturday afternoon, which might be Sandusky, Cambridge City, Modoc, Monroe, Clarkburg, Hagerstown, Liberty or Greensburg.

'SAVE THE BABIES.'

These are authentic quotations from the pamphlet on babies by Dr. L. Emmett Holt of Columbia University and Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of Union University.

At 15 months the baby may have at first one teaspoonful and later a tablespoonful of rare scraped beef, mutton or chicken. When 18 months old he may have one-half of a mealily baked potato daily. When two years old he may have most of the fresh green vegetables when thoroughly cooked and finely mashed. More on diet will be told tomorrow.

Healthy Skin Depends on Kidneys

The skin and the intestines, which work together with the kidneys to throw out the poisons of the body, do a part of the work, but a clean body and a healthy one depends on the kidneys. If the kidneys are clogged with toxic poisons you suffer from stiffness in the knees in the morning on arising, your joints seem "rusty," you may have rheumatic pains, pain in the back, stiff neck, headaches, sometimes swollen feet, or neuralgic pains—all due to the uric acid or toxic poisons in the blood. This is the time to go to the nearest drug store and simply obtain a 50c package of Anuric (double strength), the discovery of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. Then drink a cup of hot water before meals, with an Anuric tablet, and notice the gratifying results. You will find that Anuric dissolves uric acid almost as water does sugar.

OPERATION AVOIDED.

Lafayette, Ind.—"Three years ago I was taken to the hospital—all arrangements made for an operation, but when the doctors were uncertain as to whether it was to be for appendicitis or woman's trouble I insisted upon being taken home until they were of one opinion as to my ailment. Then a friend told me what wonderful remedies Dr. Pierce's were selling right from the drug shelves, and thought they might give me relief. I bought a bottle each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a box of 'Lotion Tablets.' These relieved me of a catarrhal condition, all abdominal pain, etc. But I took the medicines for almost a year to make sure of a complete recovery. Today I am in absolutely good health." Mrs. U. S. INAUGURATION CEREMONY TAKES PLACE TODAY

an attendant announced: "The President of the United States."

President Wilson entered and proceeded to the front of the chamber, was seated before the great marble rostrum of the Vice-President.

Here, Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, President pro tempore of the Senate, administered the oath of office to the Vice-President.

As the brief ceremony, which inducted her husband into the second highest office, the nation can accord, was completed, Mrs. Marshall, from the gallery waved a tiny handkerchief down to the Vice-President.

The Vice-President then assumed his chair as President of the Senate, and in turn administered the oath of fidelity to the incoming Senators. There were 32 Senators-elect or re-elected Senators to take the oath.

Following the ceremonies in the Senate chamber, the President followed by the entire company, proceeded to the East Portico of the Capitol, where the final swearing in of the President was to be held.

A vast expanse of flag-draped stands completely covered the side of the great building.

Wave after wave of applause swept the stands as 1200 midshipmen from the United States Naval Academy swung up the avenue in close formation. Uncle Sam's embryo Admirals—400 more of them this year than at President Wilson's first inaugural—were in full uniform, their heavy blue sea coats, brass buttons and white gloves, presenting a striking picture. And for sea-fighters, they found their "land legs" very well, as line after line passed in perfect formation.

Coming abreast of the Presidential stand, the middies saluted and received from President Wilson a cordial acknowledgement. Mrs. Wilson, and Cabinet ladies with her, waved their handkerchiefs enthusiastically.

The middies were followed by the West Point cadet corps—700 strong—in full regimental regalia. Their historic gray pea-jacket uniforms, crossed over the chest with white straps, and the tall grenadier caps, brought forth enthusiasm, as six companies of the young officers swept by. President Wilson also greeted them cordially.

Arriving on the Presidential stand the President, flanked by the justices of the Supreme Court, Governors of States, Senators and Representatives, Ambassadors and Ministers Plenipotentiary of foreign governments, ranking officers of the land and naval forces of the United States and members of his Cabinet, received the oath from Chief Justice White of the Supreme Court.

From the President's appearance until the assembled company was seated and the Chief Justice rose to administer the final ceremony, continuous applause swept around the stand. Hundreds of thousands of people massed the great plaza, overflowing into the Capitol grounds in a great surging sea of humanity.

As the President, however, facing the Chief Justice repeated the words permitted only to the nation's highest, the applause seemed to die away, and as the first citizen raised his hand in solemn assent, there was silence among the thousands.

Soon, however, the crowd burst the leashes of reserves and as the President stepped forward to deliver his inaugural address—his second—he was forced to pause to acknowledge the tribute.

Following his address, the President, Mrs. Wilson and the Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall returned up Pennsylvania Avenue at a brisk gallop to the White House, where they were refreshed by a light luncheon before entering the reviewing stand.

At the President's departure from the Capitol, the great procession started to form and move slowly westward toward the Executive Mansion.

"The West Indies" is the general subject for the meeting of the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church in the church basement on Wednesday afternoon when the meeting will be called promptly at 2:15 o'clock. The ladies of the March division are to be hostesses. The program will consist of the following numbers; Bible Study, Mrs. James Baldwin; paper on "Cuba," by Mrs. John Titsworth; paper on "Porto Rico" by Mrs. Will Amos; "A Child's Place in the Kingdom" by Mrs. W. O. Walton; paper on "The Greek and Latin Churches of Europe" by Mrs. L. S. Lambert; children's music in charge of Mrs. Jess Pugh. At this time the third quarter of the Living Link fund will be due.

The wedding of Miss Pauline Gessler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gessler of West Second street and Orval A. Hill of Morrisstown occurred yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the St. Paul's M. E. church, with the Rev. W. M. Whitsitt reading the wedding service. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Hill have gone to their home on a farm south of Morristown. The bride has been for several years employed with the Rushville Glove company and is quite well known in this city. Mr. Hill is a prominent young farmer. The bride was attractively dressed in a pretty colored suit, with hat, gloves and shoes to match.

When Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Orth entertained at their home in this city last evening, a delightful evening was afforded for a number of their friends. The affair was in the nature of a pitch-in supper when a bountiful meal was spread and later, the guests spent a social good time while several musical numbers were furnished. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ormes were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Webber and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mellwaine, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Newhouse and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Edna Dagler and sons, Mrs. William Offutt and daughter Rema, Mr. and Mrs. Andie Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wright and son John, and Glen Edwards.

At the meeting of the Pythian Sisters to be held on Wednesday evening, there will be work and two candidates will be taken in. It is urged that there be a large attendance.

A RAW, SORE THROAT
Eases Quickly When You Apply
a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosty feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use.

PHILLIES HAVE ONLY FAIR SHOW

Star Seems to Have Set Just as Alexander Attained the Height of Efforts.

ARE NOT GIVEN PENNANT

No Changes in Team This Year—Star Pitcher Cannot do it all, is Opinion.

Philadelphia, March 5.—The star of the Phillies seems to have set just as Grover Cleveland Alexander attained the height of his efforts. Critics are not placing them any better than third, with small chance that they will be that good.

The punch that has featured former Philadelphia National league clubs, the superb pitching of Alexander, and excellent fielding will not be noted in such strong quantities this year as formerly.

Alexander cannot win a pennant unaided, nor can he hold his team in a first division berth. Unless some pitcher can be developed to help the Nebraska wonder Philadelphia cannot hope to make much of a bid for a pennant. Rixey isn't capable—at least he never has shown that he is. He is too much of a good man today and a poor one tomorrow. The aid of Al Demaree, Giant chaser, will be missing this year, and Jimmy Lavendar is scarcely capable of doing much. Erskine Mayer probably will cut small figure.

Joe Oeschger is the logical man to save the Phillies. If he can combine some good hurling with wonderful efforts of Alexander the Phillies will have some chance.

There will be no change in the Phillies this season. Fred Luderus, a good, steady, smart ball player will be at first base. He is a hard hitter, an excellent fielder, and an aggressive man at every stage. There are few first basemen better than he.

Bert Niehoff, never considered better than just mediocre, will be at second base in all probability.

Baneroft, a real star, has no serious opposition at shortstop and he doubtless will be found there again.

Milton Stock, a good third sacker, will be on that station.

The infield is just good—no better. There are plenty of infields just as good and several that are better.

No more can be said of the outfield. Whitted is a remarkable ball player, but his indifference has hurt his playing. He is not a whole outfield, nor is he a Ty Cobb. Dode Paskert's worth is gradually declining. Goode or Cooper probably will be found in the other garden.

The worth of the pitching staff is summed up in the foregoing estimates. Alexander can do wonders if he has help.

The catching staff is splendid. Bill Killefer and Burns or Adams forms a staff that would be welcome in any National league club.

IS FIFTH MAN TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

Vice-President Marshall of Indiana Has Unusual Distinction in Taking Office Today.

RECEIVED SHARE OF TRIBUTE

Oath Was Administered by Senator Saulsbury Before Large Crowd in Senate Chamber.

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 5.—For the fifth time in the history of the United States, a Vice-President was inaugurated to succeed himself, when Thomas R. Marshall, Indiana, at noon today subscribed to the oath of office as President Wilson's second in command.

But four other Vice-Presidents have ever been chosen for a second term of office. They were: John Adams, first Vice-President; George Clinton, under Presidents Jefferson, and Madison, and who died during his second term; Daniel C. Tompkins, under President Monroe; and John C. Calhoun, under Presidents John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson, and who resigned to enter the Senate following his re-election.

Vice-President Marshall, although overshadowed by President Wilson, received today his goodly share of the nation's tribute. By strictest impartiality as President of the Senate during the stormy sessions of the past Administration, the Vice-President has gained the respect of the upper house, and the warm friendship of the men who run things in Washington.

At 11:45, the robed justices of the Supreme Court filed into the Senate, and took places directly before the Vice-President's rostrum.

Following prayer by the chaplain of the Senate, the special session was called to order, and Sen. Saulsbury administered the oath. The Senators and members then adjourned to attend the administering of the Presidential oath.
